That our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untutored Indians have discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until today we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untutored Indians have discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until today we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Not less marvelous in the unparalleled way it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and surprising developments, is Dr. Pierce's "Little Pink Pills for Pale People," which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart tonic and regulator, and blood purifier known to medical science. Dyspepsia, or indigestion, torpid liver, functional and even valvular and other affections of the heart yield to its curative action. The reason why it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address. Write to Dr. J. C. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances of the latest design, and are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle-wrapper.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak Kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specially prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Tablets or Liquid—see what it can and will do for you. Druggists recommend and sell.

SMASHED WOMAN'S SKULL.

Just before Magistrate Corrigan closed Night Court in New York on the morning of September 14, a man, who said he was Frank J. Miller, presented himself and asked to be locked up.

"I have just ten minutes to live," he told the magistrate. On being questioned Miller said that he had done wrong, just what he declined to say, and reiterated his belief that he was to die immediately.

Magistrate Corrigan sent the man to Bellevue for investigation as to his sanity. A woman, who said she was Miller's wife, went to the hospital repeatedly to see him, and yesterday afternoon called again, and on her promise to take care of the man he was discharged from the institution.

Yesterday afternoon Miller smashed the woman's skull with a heavy hammer and cut her face with a razor; then when he saw that he could not escape the hands of the police, cut his own wrists and throat. Both man and woman are lying in the Roosevelt Hospital in a critical condition. Little hope is entertained by the physicians for the recovery of either.

The woman's name is Delia Moulton, and she is twenty-two years old. Miller is forty-three. They had been living as husband and wife in a rear three-room apartment on the second floor of a thirty-fifth street tenement for the last two years. Miller had little to do with other tenants. Miller was supposed to be in the real estate business when he worked. The pair had frequent quarrels, and neighbors allege Miller often beat the woman.

WANTED TEN MILLIONS.

Secret Service Officer Washer was on duty in front of President Roosevelt's house at Sagamore Hill at 7 o'clock last night when he saw a man dressed in overalls and wearing a slouch hat step around from the rear of the house. Washer didn't say anything at first, because he thought the man might be employed on the farm, but when he went up on the porch and started to ring the doorbell Washer asked him what he wanted.

"Want to see the President to get him to make John D. Rockefeller pay me $10,000,000 he owes me," the man said. "I know that's the only way I'll ever get the money."

Washer asked the man about himself and the visitor in the overalls said he was Orlando Toland, and had come all the way from Oxford, Ala., to see the President. He said he beat his way on freight trains to Washington, and when he found the President gone he stole a ride to New York. He walked all the way out to Oyster Bay, he said.

Toland was turned over to secret service men.

When they talked with the man they decided that he was perfectly harmless, gave him what he thought was a letter to Rockefeller, ordering him to pay Toland what he owed him on sight, and then sent him to New York on a train. Toland told the officers that Rockefeller offered him $65,000,000 if he would find out who murdered a certain woman in St. Paul. He said he didn't discover the murderer, but thought his work on the case was worth at least $10,000,000.

KIDNAPERS SENTENCED.

Joshua Harrison, brother-in-law of ex-Gov. J. T. Garvis of North Carolina, must serve the 20-year sentence in the penitentiary, according to a ruling made yesterday afternoon by the North Carolina Supreme Court at Raleigh, for kidnapping little Kenneth Beasley, the eight-year-old son of State Senator S. M. Beasley, of Currituck county. Harrison is a prosperous and prominent farmer, a neighbor of Senator Beasley, and the kidnapping is alleged to have been the recking of vengeance in a grudge of long standing Harrison has had against Beasley over temperance legislation that Beasley advocated. The little boy disappeared February 13, 1905, and no trace of him has ever been found.

Theodore D. Hess, formerly a New York policeman; who a week ago pleaded guilty before Judge Foster in General Sessions to a charge of kidnapping, was yesterday sentenced by Judge Foster to a term of 10 years.

We are certainly excelling ourselves and everybody else in the present quality of Arbuckle's Ariosia Coffee.

No such quality of coffee can be sold out of a bag, bin or tin, or under any other name by anybody in this town, for anything near the same price.

That's a strong statement, but you can take our word for it, and we are the largest dealers in coffee in the world. Another thing—the egg coating on ARIOSIA COFFEE does not improve its appearance but preserves the flavor and aroma.

Remember that ARIOSIA is not sold to look at, but to drink.

ter to serve 14 years and 5 months in Sing Sing prison. Hess was arrested in May last in Baltimore, after taking Elizabeth Grady, described as a 14-year-old girl, away from her home and along with him to Baltimore. Other charges against the man were set aside by the district attorney when it was agreed that he would plead guilty to a charge of kidnapping.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the stomach, etc.

A weak Stomach, causing dyspepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation of intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves. Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis., will mail sample free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.
